

Cachet Prescott – Training and Development Volunteer

Air Force Spouse and Former Army “Brat”

Credentials: BA, Sociology; MA, Applied Psychology, MA, Sociology

Air Force spouse, Cachet Prescott, is no stranger to life in the military. She experienced life as an Army brat during her father’s time in the military. She works as a Campus Center Director and Adjunct Faculty member at Park University. She began her career working as the Coordinator of Multicultural Recruitment at Fairfield University in Connecticut. While at Fairfield, Cachet obtained her MA in Applied Psychology with a concentration in Industrial/Organizational/Personnel Psychology. After three years, she left Fairfield University to continue her education pursuits and completed an MA in Sociology at the University of Georgia (UGA). During her time at UGA, Cachet continued her work in academia as a Teaching Assistant and tutor in Sociology and Psychology classes and a Graduate Assistant and Program Coordinator of the Peach State Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation (PSLSAMP) program. In addition to her academic background, Cachet has experience in Human Resources in the areas of Benefits, Employee Relations, Organizational Development, Recruitment, and Training and Development and is also a freelance writer. She and her husband, Will, are stationed at Vandenberg AFB in California, have a three year daughter named Sarai, and are expecting their second daughter in March. Cachet joined the MSCCN volunteer team in August 2009 and looks forward to continuing to help the organization fulfill its important mission.
