

Rear Admiral Dan Kloeppe and his wife Deb Kloeppe visited with Neil Armstrong last month in Pensacola Florida during the 100 year Naval Aviation Celebration at the Navy Aviation Museum on May 3, 2011. "What a wonderful and amazing event! I remember the exact day and exact time that Neil Armstrong uttered his infamous words: "One small step for man - one giant leap for mankind" said Kloeppe.

"I've met many dignitaries in my life - Neil Armstrong was the most memorable. Why? How many people have walked on the Moon?!"
